Scavenger Hunt Clues

1. Open 24/7, this building is the hub of student life on campus. Inside, you can find a bookstore, tech store, bank, tutoring center, two dining areas, a riverside patio, and plenty of Hawkeye pride. Take a picture by any of these features!
2. If you need a book, here's where to look! It'll help you find some Food for Thought, so all your studying won't be for naught.
3. You can catch me but I can't catch you! I am twelve feet tall and weigh two tons, and I've been hanging out in the university's Museum of Natural History since 1985. Come find me and let's take a selfie!
4. I'm the oldest building on the University of Iowa's campus. One of five on a hill, you can get one of the best views on campus from my steps. Once you've reached my golden dome, turn and wave at the kiddos in the hospital.
5. Come to this building and you'll find a home for all sorts of activities - swimming, climbing, running, and enjoying tasty smoothies, to name a few!
6. There are a lot of elements that go into a good college education, so periodically, it's useful to make a table to stay organized. Find an example of this in the building where you can study with your friends Curie, Noble, and Boyle.
7. When you have questions about your college career, look no further than here! They can help you with job and internship seeking, interviews, grad school, and more.
8. On the roof of this building, you can find an amazing place to look at the starry night sky. The namesake of this building was a scientist who studied radiation belts in space.
9. Has this scavenger hunt made you lose your mind yet? Someone already has - can you find their brain on the sidewalk? Students have rubbed it for good luck since 2011.

10. CAB hosts lots of great events in here, such as comedians and karaoke nights!
Remember this place if your parents need a place to stay during Graduation!
11. Established in 1896, customers were able to check out books here. Last year, they checked out nearly 1.3 million materials to Iowa City residents!
12. This theater was constructed during the pre-World War I building boom. The man who had it built, a descendent of the Englert brewing family, lived above the theater lobby, while performers often stayed in sleeping rooms another floor up.
13. Originally built as a high school, today you can find the School of Social Work here. You can also stop and grab something from Wild Bill's Coffee Shop.
14. This building was a part of the 2017 Disney Spirit Award. At every Hawkeye home football game, you can find fans waving to its patients on the 11th floor.
15. If you watch a Hawkeye home football game, I'll be here to greet you. I'm a former Heisman Trophy winner, WWII hero, and I've been standing here since 2006.
16. These four locations provide a "Home Away From Home" for many students. The centers provide intra- and cross-cultural education, leadership and organizational development opportunities, social justice education, and change.
17. A quick step away from many Health and Human Physiology classes, this 334,000 sq. ft facility houses 16 racquetball courts, 8 basketball/volleyball courts, swimming pools, and a few academic courses of its own.
18. As both a competitor and coach, bronze wasn't acceptable for this famous Iowa legend. His monument can be found near the mats, where his coaching record was
